

Every Man is independent of all laws except those prescribed by nature. He is not bound by any institution formed by his fellow Men without his consent. Cruden V Neale ZNC 338 May Term 1796